

ISTC ELECTRONIC DEVICE USE POLICY

Purpose: to establish a uniform policy for the use of cellular phones, electronic devices, optical or audio recording devices during ISTC training activities.

1. Cell phone use is disruptive to training activities, has a negative impact on other participants therefore is prohibited during any training activity; this includes telephony, text messages, games, email, photography or any other use.
2. The use of any electronic device (including but not limited to, iPod's, translation devices, pagers, MP3 Players, etc.) is strictly prohibited during any training activity.
3. The use of optical or audio recording devices is strictly prohibited during any training activity.
4. Use or attempted use of any of the above devices to gain assistance in testing or to capture or record training materials or test questions is strictly prohibited and shall constitute cheating and will be handled in accordance with the ISTC cheating policy.